

DSAR Competition 2010 Scottsboro, Alabama

Division 08 had 2 teams—one from Flotilla 8E-08-11 Kuttawa with Members: Gregg McKee, Alan Wade and Nick Shull

The other from 8E-087 Cadiz members: Robert Schaaf, Kenneth Culwell, Janis Culwell

Our division did very well. Over all Cadiz placed first for 8 Eastern and Third overall

The DSAR recognized the top three teams overall.

There were 20 states represented with 4 teams from 8 Eastern and 4 teams from 8 Western regions. The event was well represented by CGAUX and CG members.

Following are just a few photos of the events:

Bill McGonica, Incident Commander—DSAR 2010 Opening Ceremonies

Thursday evening at 2000 the written exam began—all team members took an 80 question seamanship, navigation and operations exam. It was a timed event they were to take the exam in 60 minutes.

Friday morning gathering of participants. All teams gathering for events.

In Photo: Elinor Stacy, Nick Shull, Gregg McKee, Alan Wade from 08-11 and 2 officials from 8 eastern

Bob Schaaf, Jan and Ken Culwell competing in the P-6 pump

Gregg McKee, Alan Wade and Nick Shull competing in the P-6 pump

Bob Schaaf, Jan and Ken Culwell competing the Search Execution

Gregg McKee, Alan Wade and Nick Shull competing in the Search Execution

Gregg, Alan and Nick at the mystery event. This event was a scenario that involved a person falling into the water and sustaining injuries to the leg and head. They had to remove the person and get them ready to transport in a basket .

Bob Schaaf, Jan and Ken Culwell after Search and Rescue

Bob, Jan and Ken in the Heaving Line competition—This event was timed. You had to heave a cotton line, hemp line and poly line together at 3 different platforms. Then return the tied lines to the middle person who then tied a load (the wooded post) to the line. Finishing with the last person pulling all line and the load to the first platform.

Gregg, Nick and Alan competing in the Line Heaving.

Bill McGonigal, Gregg, Alan and Nick trying to find shade while watching the line heaving competition

Elinor did find shade as she watched the competition

Bob, Jan and Ken competing in the Marlinspike It was extremely hot Saturday morning.

Alan, Nick and Gregg competing at the Marlinspike

The Comms event was judged on radio procedure and the individual questions

And Search planning was chart work done as a team.

Congratulations to all the participants.

A big congratulations to Gregg McKee, Alan Wade and Nick Shull for a GREAT JOB!

Photo's and comments by Geri McKee Cheer leader.

Congratulations to 082E-08-7 for their first place in Eastern Division and Third place overall.

